MRS S. M. OWENS

Tested in political campaign work and democratic party organization, weighed in official balances and not found wanting, Mr. S. M. Owens is a candidate for sheriff of Lincoln county, submitting his claims to any action that may be taken by the democratic party. He was born in Wayne county, Kentucky, October 10, 1857, and is of English descent, having a worthy and eminent ancestry. He married Miss Augusta Bibb, a gifted and accomplished lady, of Richmond, Va. He has been extensively engaged in farming and trading and has a large acquaintance, being very popular. He was educated at Hintonville Academy and being a strong advocate of fraternity he is in good standing as a member of the Masons, I. O. O. F., K. O. T. M., K. P., and the Red Men, having gone through Ryan Commandery, No. 17, Danville, Kentucky.

In religious faith and practice he is a member of the Presbyterians church. He was always a true democrat and, as an organizer and in the most important party work, he has no superior. His precinct, all hands off, is 100 republican, but, by using his tactics, he carries it from 60 to 115 democratic. It is claimed that his long service, by which he has so often aided in leading the party to victory, justly entitles him to the endorsement and support of that party in the race for the nomination for sheriff.

Another claim, which is a very potent one, lies in the fact that he has made a faithful public servant and has fully manifested his competency to dispose of the duties of the office in a manner altogether satisfactory to the public. Among the ministerial offices, that of sheriff is likely the most important, as it deals directly with the financial interests of the people, in the collection of revenues and in many acts which are necessary in conserving the peace and good order of a community, so seeking an incumbent for this office, as in every other department of life, experience is at a premium. The experienced clerk is in demand and the drilled soldier is sent on a hazardous expedition. Playing the same role in this case, we find that the subject of this sketch has evinced his fitness and ability for discharging official duties, by serving two terms as jailer of Lincoln county, beginning in 1882, and afterward one term as sheriff. His entire official career was most brilliant and highly acceptable. There have been many expressions of satisfaction by the courts in which he served and by others in a position to know best of his career.

His friends point with pride to his public record, his good judgment, his courage, his honesty and his ability and claim that there is no better equipped man in the county for the office of sheriff.

Has Sold a Pile of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for more than 20 years and it has given entire satisfaction. I have sold a pile of it and can recommend it highly.—Joseph McElbney, Linton, Iowa. You will find this remedy a good friend when troubled with a cough or cold. It always affords quick relief and is pleasant to take. For sale by all Druggists.

One of the most remarkable persons in Pennsylvania is Asoraham B. Myers. With only stumps of arms he writes a very legible hand, holding the pen between the stumps of his arms, without artificial assistance. He is a marksman of no mean ability, and pulls the trigger by means of a twine, the end of which he grips in his teeth. He plays pool and billiards and even rides horseback.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of linen damped with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pain in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by all Druggists.

MR. JAMES C. HAYES

Possessed of many excellent traits of character, being a Table and having a legion of friends, Mr. J. C. Hayes is a candidate for justice of Lincoln county, submitting to the action of the democratic party. He was born in Rockcastle county, February 10, 1851. He is of English and Irish descent, and is related to many distinguished ancestors. In 1874 he was married to Miss Serene Haley, a daughter of Alfred Haley. He is the father of seven sons, four of whom are voting the democratic ticket, and the other three will do likewise when they arrive at an age to be legal voters. This increase in the ranks of the party is considerable and may be sufficient, in a close campaign, to insure democratic victory. If a few more families could recruit the ranks, as Mr. Hayes has, the party would win in every campaign, and such an increase should be duly considered and recognized.

He moved to Lincoln county in 1875 and he is fully identified with the interests of the people and shares their adversity and their prosperity. He is a successful farmer and trader, familiar with business principles and methods equal to any emergency that may arise. He is in fellowship with the Masons, a strict member of the Christian church and an advocate of every institution that has to view the mental and moral improvement of man and the promotion of the general welfare. Being thus interested in the public good, it goes without saying that he would make an efficient officer and guard well the prisoners and the public buildings entrusted to his care.

He has always been a democrat and has freely and liberally given his time and labor to aid in carrying the banner of the party to victory. It follows that he has claims on the party which are worthy of consideration and should not be ignored.

His morals are good and his habits regular and systematic, resulting from great firmness of character. Liberal in his views and charitable in his opinions he maintains his convictions free from any semblance of egotism or indulgence in the fanciful and visionary, and is needed in the public service.

If nominated and elected he will make a model officer and discharge the duties of jailer in an acceptable manner and his prospects are reported to be quite flattering.

PREACHERSVILLE.

At 10 o'clock Friday morning, after a week's illness of spinal meningeal croup, the spirit of little Mary Katherine Payne, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Payne, returned to the God who gave it. She was nearly two years old and a very bright child.

D. M. Anderson sold to a Garrard man a pair of mules for $225 and purchased a pair of J. M. Cross for $20. John Adams of Garrard, was here receiving a lot of young mules. J. M. Cross bought of B. T. Lunsford 100 barrels of corn and 50 of flour. Sergeant at $2 delivered.

Mr. and Mrs. James Curtis, of Madison, have been visiting her father, B. F. Lunsford. Mr. J. Holzclaw, of Missouri, has been visiting his brother, Ben and Frank Holzclaw. John W. Riggsby, of Illinois, was with his brother, D. J. Riggsby, at Cedar Creek, and sister, Mrs. B. F. Lunsford, at this place.

Two of the best laws on the statute books are those introduced by Hon. J. M. Alverson and enacted by the last Legislature. The vagrancy law, if enforced, will do much toward breaking up the motley crowds that infect public places and by their profane utterances, obscene language and exhalation of vile tobacco smoke, have made it well nigh impossible for ladies to come to town or go to the depot without annoyance. This law making it a penalty to flourish a pistol on the cars will make traveling seem more safe and guns more scarce on trains, especially on excursions. Mr. Officer it is now up to you. Nab a connoisseur at the depot, on the corner and let him crack rock, catch the gun "toter" and confiscate his pistol.

MR. W. A. CARSON

Possessed of many excellent traits of character, being a Table and having a legion of friends, Mr. J. C. Hayes is a candidate for justice of Lincoln county, submitting to the action of the democratic party. He was born Dec. 21st, 1856, his ancestors having come from Virginia. He has a host of friends and an extensive and distinguished relationship several of them having filled important places of public trust and acquitted themselves with the approval of the public. He has been a successful merchant and his business relations have been such as to give him an accurate conception of the value of property, without which it would be impossible to discharge the duties of the office which he seeks, as the successful administration of government depends largely upon the work of the assessor in listing property so that the revenue derived therefrom will be sufficient to meet public expenditures. In 1890 he married Miss Nellie Yantis, a most lovable and excellent lady, they having been blessed with four children. He was educated at Crab Orchard Seminary and being in favor of all institutions that elevate and enlighten mankind, he is in fellowship with the Masons, I. O. O. F., K. P., K. O. T. M., and the Red Men, having gone through Ryan Commandery, No. 17, Danville, Kentucky.

MR. R. L. HUBLE

This very popular and altogether worthy gentleman is a candidate for assessor of Lincoln county, abiding the action of the democratic party. He was born Dec. 21st, 1856, his ancestors having come from Virginia. He has a host of friends and an extensive and distinguished relationship several of them having filled important places of public trust and acquitted themselves with the approval of the public. He has been a successful merchant and his business relations have been such as to give him an accurate conception of the value of property, without which it would be impossible to discharge the duties of the office which he seeks, as the successful administration of government depends largely upon the work of the assessor in listing property so that the revenue derived therefrom will be sufficient to meet public expenditures. In 1890 he married Miss Nellie Yantis, a most lovable and excellent lady, they having been blessed with four children. He was educated at Crab Orchard Seminary and being in favor of all institutions that elevate and enlighten mankind, he is in fellowship with the Masons, I. O. O. F., K. P., K. O. T. M., and the Red Men, having gone through Ryan Commandery, No. 17, Danville, Kentucky.

He is the father of seven sons, four of whom are voting the democratic ticket, and the other three will do likewise when they arrive at an age to be legal voters. This increase in the ranks of the party is considerable and may be sufficient, in a close campaign, to insure democratic victory. If a few more families could recruit the ranks, as Mr. Hayes has, the party would win in every campaign, and such an increase should be duly considered and recognized.

He moved to Lincoln county in 1875 and he is fully identified with the interests of the people and shares their adversity and their prosperity. He is a successful farmer and trader, familiar with business principles and methods equal to any emergency that may arise. He is in fellowship with the Masons, a strict member of the Christian church, though his views are such as to preclude the opinions of the offensive sectarian.

He has always been a democrat and a faithful worker in the interest of the party, being a member of the county committee for 11 years, during which time his advice was sought and he labored for the success of the party and it is not only consistent with justice, but it would be in keeping with well established customs in all the affairs of life to reward him for his excellent service.

His fidelity to the democratic party has been frequently manifested by the part he has taken in many heated campaigns by contributing funds and aiding in organizing the party and bringing out the vote. He made the fight before the Senatorial committee at Danville, which resulted in giving Lincoln county the right to name the Senator for the ensuing term. His zealous efforts in behalf of the party when the lamented Goebel was a candidate, resulted in the finding of an indictment against him and two others on the charge of violating the election laws, they being taken before a Federal court, which dismissed the indictment. He has served as election commissioner for Lincoln county and filled other places of trust. He was a member of the democratic county committee for four years and no man did more for the success of the party. In fact to him is due a great deal of the credit of bringing Lincoln county out of the slough of republicanism.

This cursory sketch of his public and private life proves that he is worthy and capable and that the party should reward him for his excellent service.

Individual success has generally been the standard by which a man's ability to discharge the duties of a public trust is measured, and when this test is applied to Mr. Hubble he meets all the requirements, having been very successful in every enterprise.

Being very intelligent, having firm

character and a broad experience, his friends claim that he is the only one that should win the nomination and that if he does, he will defeat any opposition in the final election.

His whole life demonstrates the fact that he is fully qualified to execute the trust, and his excellent character

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

DURING the past week the editor of this paper has had the privilege of visiting his only sister near Richmond, Va. While it was a treat for him to be with her, who has been both mother and sister to him, the sad thought of her recent loss, a son, married to no little extent the usual pleasureable visit affords. The Old Dominion looked prosperous and her people seemed contented and happy. Crops are good and prices are high, hence the farmer is in splendid spirits. The merchant and mechanic, the professional man and the man who makes his living by the sweat of his brow all bore unmistakable evidences of prosperity and happiness. In fine the grand old mother of States and statesmen is just as good and good looking as she used to be and her folks, like they have ever been, are the best that ever the sun shone on. The trip was made over the old reliable Chesapeake & Ohio, which has veritable moving palaces for trains and whose route is beautiful and picturesque beyond the ability of this pen to describe.

WHAT'S the matter with genial Ed Walton? He seems to have a grouch against Somerset—Journal. Nothing earthly the matter. He loves Somerset almost as well as Brer Campbell does, but his eyesight is unimpaired and he can readily see that the capital of Pulaski is not the only town on the map. Editor Campbell should buy a pair of spectacles and "take a trip" over the country.

THE New York democratic convention adjourned at Saratoga after nominating by unanimous action a State ticket headed by Justice D. Cady Herrick, of Albany, for governor. Justice Herrick was agreed upon as a compromise candidate and the convention was harmonious throughout. It seems to be a foregone conclusion that the Empire State will go democratic this fall. So mote it be.

JAMES M. RICHARDSON was nominated for Congress in the Third district by the democratic convention at Scottsville. Three cheers for the gallant knight of the tripod. We hope he will be elected by the big majority he richly deserves.

THE Lexington Democrat is four years old to-day. It is also the best democratic daily published in Kentucky. What better could be said about it?

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their feed. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturer. The Chatanooga Medicine Co., Chatanooga, Tenn.

BIRMINGHAM, Ga., Jan. 30, 1892.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best liver-tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 percent better.
